MEMORANDUM CIRCULAR
NUMBER 2006-070

SUBJECT : LIFTING OF MORATORIUM FOR TOURIST RENT-A-CAR SERVICES WITHIN FROM CEBU (MACTAN) INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT TO ANY POINT IN THE TOURISM SUPER-REGION (REGIONS 5, 6, 7 & 8)

Based from the Memorandum of the Undersecretary for Land Transportation duly noted by the DOTC Secretary (OSEC Ref. No. 06-02840) relative to Item 3 of the "Policy Review and Recommendations on Selective Lifting of Moratorium for Critically-Identified Mode of Public Land Transportation" in view of the foreign and domestic tourist transport requirements, especially during the ASEAN Summit and other related tourism programs/activities.

Pursuant thereto, this Board hereby orders lifting of moratorium and the acceptance of applications/petitions for new CPCs to accommodate two hundred two (202) brand new units (year model 2005-2006) involving sedan cars, vans and coasters to operate from Cebu (Mactan) International Airport to any point in the Tourism Super Region (Regions 5, 6, 7, & 8). Applications/petitions within Region 7 shall be processed at LTFRB Region 7 while applications/petitions covering inter-regional operations shall be accepted at LTFRB Region 7 and forwarded to the LTFRB Central Office for final processing, subject to the following terms and conditions:

1. Submission of endorsement from the Department of Tourism (DOT) in Region 7.
2. Submission of Certificate of Availability of Parking Space from the Cebu (Mactan) International Airport Administration.
3. Submission of Concessionaire Agreement with Cebu (Mactan) International Airport Administration after the issuance of franchise/CPC and prior to confirmation.

Other rules and regulations that are inconsistent with the provisions of this Memorandum Circular are hereby repealed and/or modified accordingly.

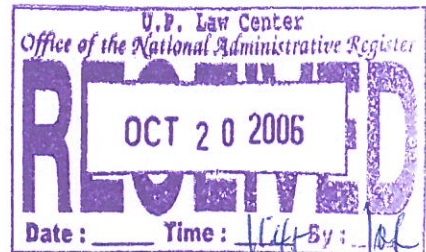

This Memorandum Circular shall take effect fifteen (15) days following the publication in newspapers/periodicals of national circulation or with the Official Gazette.

SO ORDERED.
